Payment procedure and registration

Registration is completed when we have received your payment. We have to book rooms early as there are limitations on capacity in some places. For this reason payment must reach us not later than 28 February 2007. (If a limit must be enforced on the number of participants it will be based upon date of payment.)

The price includes transport by coach, lodging with breakfast, lunch and dinner with beverage (wine only at some dinners) and refreshments during the trip, except on Thursday 2 August, when lunch must be arranged individually during the 'Stockholm Day'. All entrance fees and guides are also included apart from the 'Stockholm Day'.

In order to reduce cost we have decided not to use a travel agency. Payment must therefore be made in SEK (Swedish Crowns) through a bank by electronic money transfer. Payment by credit card or cheque will not be accepted.

For practical reasons payment is collected through our nursery account using the IBAN NUMBER and the BIC CODE specified below and on the registration form. You can reduce your bank charges if several participants pay together in a single transaction.

The cost per person is SEK 10710 in single room and SEK 9350 in double room.

Further information

Limit on number of participants

Due to the number of beds available in some of the country hotels as well as the visits to museums and gardens, it may be necessary to limit the number of participants. Experience from earlier events tells us that this risk is small, but finite. We hope that as many as possible will join our event but if we have to impose a limit we will use the time of payment as the criterion.

Cancellation

Cancellation may be done based on medical ground (or other reasonable cause). In such case a refund will be made only for direct cost reduction like accommodation, meals, entrance fees but only when this reduces the cost for the organizer.

Travel insurance

Attendees are strongly advised to arrange their own travel insurance. Neither the SCIS nor the I.Cl.S. are covered for such matters.

Weather

Most of the visits are outside, some adjustment of the activities may be possible but it is recommended to bring clothes and suitable shoes for a rainy day.

Travel information for international connections to and from the event

Participants gather in Malmö on Saturday 28 July where dinner is the first event of the programme. We stay at Quality Hotel Konserthuset, Amiralsgatan 19, SE-211 55 MALMÖ, in central Malmö. There is a bus connection from Kastrup Airport, Copenhagen, the closest international hub. Buses depart every hour for most of the day and one stop is outside the hotel, Konserthuset.

Ryanair operates from Sturup Airport, a possible alternative for European participants (and return from Skavsta, see below). Bus connection to Malmö, Hotel Konserthuset is available.

The journey starts from Malmö on Sunday morning 29 July. We board the coach in the morning bringing all luggage along. One practical aspect is to limit the luggage to one case if possible. We will change hotel every night during the first part of the trip and if the coach is full the luggage compartments may become a problem. (Formal dress is not necessary during the activities.)

The last four nights are spent at Quality Park Hotel in Södertälje.

<http://www.parkhotell.com/>

There are several options for public transport to Arlanda Airport for international flights. Ryanair has flights from Skavsta Airport which may be an alternative for the return flight. Bus connection to flights from Skavsta depart from Södertälje Syd Train Station according to a timetable adjusted to the departure times for the flights. For international participants there are options to return to Copenhagen by air or to return to Malmö or Copenhagen by train (and continue to Kastrup Airport by bus or train). The cost for a single fare ticket on the train is approximately EUR 100 (or SEK 1000).

Web site for update of information

We recommend that you visit our web site before leaving for Sweden. It will be updated with the latest information.

Details about visits

Below you can find information about some of the main visits. The websites quoted are not always in English but can nevertheless be informative.

Sunday 29 July

Morning, Alnarp

The faculty at Alnarp is a unit of the Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences (SLU) and is in charge of research and teaching of landscape planning, horticulture and agricultural science. We will have a guided tour of the park surrounding Alnarp Castle, see link below.

http://sv.wikipedia.org/wiki/Alnarps\_slott

Our guides will be professors from the landscape planning department.

Afternoon, Lecture on Linnaeus, Garden Visit

Professor Gunnar Broberg from the department of History of Science and Ideas wrote his dissertation on Linnaeus. He is considered an expert in the field and is a popular lecturer on the subject. After the lecture and a short visit to the Botanic Garden we will visit the "koloniträdgård" (allotment) of Jens Larsson with a large collection of roses and clematis.

Monday 30 July

Morning, Sofiero Castle, Helsingborg

The first visit is to Sofiero castle and park. The castle, built in 1864, was used in the summer by the Royal Family. Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf and his first wife, Margareta from England, started to plan the present garden. Crown Princess Margareta designed an English Garden which has been restored. In recent years a modern English Garden has been added in the park. The head gardener will guide us during the visit. A small Magnus Johnson Clematis Garden is also available and an exhibition on Linnaeus has been designed by garden journalist Karin Berglund. She is well known in Sweden and has written about clematis and Magnus Johnson in her articles and books. The rhododendron collection is the most famous part of the park. Some information (mainly in Swedish) can be found through this link.

We will be guided by Dr. Kimmo Rumpunen who will also give a lecture on growing clematis in Scandinavian conditions. Elitplantstationen, a propagating unit affiliated to Balsgård, is propagating several of Magnus Johnson's cultivars as well as plants of other genera. There is a classification system of plants suitable for Swedish conditions giving them status of "Elitplanta". The following link may be of interest.
